

A Really Great Day

© 2016 Will Stanley

The birds are up, now I am too
The sun is bright, the sky is blue
As I wipe the sleepy seeds from my eyes I see her hair
And I feel a glow that lets me know my angel is still there

Wow, I never knew that life could be
A journey loving and care-free
But now I see that she's my eternity
And today is a good day
Yes it's true it's a really good day
Yes today's the day for a really great day.

We take a walk, we climb a hill
Just being with her, makes it a thrill
There's no better way to spend the day than being by her side
And the joy I feel seems so very real like I love I feel inside.

Wow, I never knew that life could be
A journey loving and care-free
But now I see that she's mine eternally
Cuz today is a good day
Yes it's true it's a really good day
Yes today's the day for a really great day.

Bridge: Cuz days like this were few and far between Till I met my true love and she changed my routine.

There's no better way to spend the day than being by her side
And the joy I feel seems so very real as does the love I feel inside.

Wow, I never knew that life could be
A journey loving and care-free
But now I see that she's the girl for me
So today is a good day
Yes it's true it's a really good day
Yes today's the day for a really great day.
