

I'm Thru With Love

© 2005 Will Stanley

I've been disappointed for the upteenth time
I've heard that love is sweet, I say that love is blind
No matter what you do, you wind up in the dumps
The only thing to do is quit and take your lumps

Don't say I'm missing a lot
I know I gave it my best shot
Now I'm fed up
And I'm getting tough

I've had enough, I'm thru with love
Of swearing faithfulness by the stars above
It don't amount to a hill of beans
Just fake affection and shattered dreams
And all you get is a broken heart
If the end's that bad, what's the point in starting up
So I'm thru with love.

She was a lover like I'd never seen
With her long, tan legs she might have been a beauty queen
When we loved, she made me feel like a mighty man
And when we fought, she made me think I was in the garbage can

It was almost more than I could take
Her goodbye note and my heartache
It was really rough
Now I'm getting tough

Cuz I've had enough, and I'm thru with love
No more forever yours by the stars above
It's a bad joke told too many times
I got the wind knocked out by that same punch line
Once again I got a broken heart
And if the end's that bad, what's the point in starting up
So I'm thru with love.

What's the use, you pays your dues
And gets the blues, whatever you choose you lose

I've had enough, I'm thru with love
No more forever yours by the stars above
It don't amount to a hill of beans
Just fake affection and shattered dreams
And all you get is a broken heart
If the end's that bad, what's the point in starting up
So I'm thru with love.
