^A
Ever since I was 14

I'd known exactly what I want ^E

And ever since 1964 ^{A A7 D D dim}

I've thanked my stars for Mary Quant. ^{A E A D AE}

It began back in the roaring twenties
When Flappers learned how to flaunt
But nothing topped all the beauty
That came because of Mary Quant.

^C
I'd known girls had legs ^A

But showing them off, unleashed a power keg ^{C B E E→A}

And with the demonstration, they could strut and tease and taunt ^{A A7 D Ddim}

A star arose in Mary Quant. ^{A E A D A E}

Instrumental verse

^{D^b G^b B^{b7} G^b}
You may say it destroyed fantasy

^{B B7 E A E E7}
But it made all my fantasies reality.

^{A A7 D Ddim}
From the streets of Detroit, to the loudest honky-tonk

^{A E A D AE}
They sang their praise of Mary Quant.

Instrumental verse

Don't tell me it corrupts morality

All I know is I really like what I see.

Just combine it with a teeny weeny thong
