

My B. S. Detector's Workin' Overtime

© 2010 Will Stanley

Tell me a story, you think I'll buy
If at first you don't succeed, give it one more try
Your expressions must be heartfelt
And it can't look like you're tryin'
Cuz my B. S. Detector's working overtime.

Make something up
Add in some fluff
Dramatize
Your alibis
Fight back the tears
Act real sincere
I know you're good at fake cryin'

But never forget the fact
I can track when you're lyin'
Cuz my B.S. Detector's working overtime.

Don't be surprised
Or agonize
When I don't accept
Your regrets
I reject the ruse
That you try to use
I didn't find out by sneakin' and spyin'

I guess you forgot the fact
I can track when you're lyin'
Cuz my B.S. Detector's working overtime.

I don't care what you say,
Please just go away
I can't believe
Someone who deceives
And you've got balls
Approaching me at all
Spoutin' your pathetic denyin'.

Cuz you forgot the fact
I can track when you're lyin'
And my B.S. Detector's working overtime
Cuz my B.S. Detector's working overtime
Yes my B.S. Detector's working overtime
