

Soul Mates

© 2006 Will Stanley

After love, we lie there and softly talk
About the reasons we still click, while others have long since stopped
And we both agree, that what's special in what we do
Is the way we integrate our points of view
With one part your side, and one part my side, and two equal parts of I love you.

Soul Mates, more than just lovers, we're
Soul Mates, linked to one another,
Soul Mates, two souls bound together, yours and mine
For all time

How to describe this feeling that we get
After we've made love so long, both of us forget
Where we began, or who's been keeping score
There's only one thing that seems for sure
It was one part your love, and one part my love, and two parts let's love forever more.

Soul Mates, more than just lovers, we're
Soul Mates, linked to one another,
Soul Mates, two souls bound together, yours and mine
Intertwined, till the end of time

How can a woman fulfill a man this much
With just a kiss and a sweet touch
I guess it's time, we finally say goodnight
Cuz I detect, the first rays of daylight.

It was one part your love, and one part my love, and two parts let's love forever more.

Soul Mates, more than just lovers, we're
Soul Mates, linked to one another,
Soul Mates, two souls bound together, yours and mine
For all time

Soul Mates, in love with one another
Rock N Roll Mates, underneath the covers
Super Bowl Mates, unlike any other
Two souls intertwined, for all time.
